

Department of Agricultural Economics
Seminars
Spring 2012

- January 27 Brian Williams, OSU, ““Optimal Retention of Weaned Calves by Oklahoma Cow-Calf Producers.”
(practice job talk)
- February 3 Practice presentations for SAEA meeting
(graduate students contact Lusk if you’d like to present)
- February 17 Kerry Litzenberg, Texas A&M, “Are you Wired for the Millennials?”
in 107 Ag Hall at 3:30pm
- February 24 Christy and Jayson Lusk, “Oklahomans in Paris: Managing a Sabbatical”
- March 9 Marco Palma, Texas A&M, “Consumption Trends and Opportunities for the Horticulture Industry.”
- March 30 Darren Hudson, Texas Tech University, “Impacts of mergers, acquisitions, and joint ventures on food company performance.”
- April 2 John Michael Riley, Mississippi State University, title tba.
- April 6 Mindy Mallory, University of Illinois, “The Cost of Forward Contracting Corn and Soybeans in Volatile Markets”
- April 20 Jody Campiche, OSU, “Farm Bill Update”
- April 27 Glynn Tonsor, Kansas State University, “Life as a Land-Grant Economist in a Changing World”

All seminars are at 3:30 on Friday in 410 unless otherwise noted